

“Grace4All”

From the Pastor's Desk

As we celebrate Thanksgiving this month let us look at the wonders of the Lord and all His mercies. Even as we look at the difficulties and trials around us, we see the hand of God working out his plans. In this we can give thanks, looking to Him and thanking Him for all His provision and care. In Christ alone is our salvation and hope; let us rejoice in Him!

Blessings, Pastor Doug

Pray For the Persecuted Church

India: Couple Resists Persecution, Shares Gospel in Village

Since 2011, Pastor Prem and his wife, Amala, have served in an area of India where pastors and Christian organizations serve for a short time but then leave because of persecution. The area is the central hub in the district for the Hindu nationalist organization Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS). Prem and Amala now lead a church with about 35 believers. Prem has been beaten four times, faces constant pressure from the community and is continually watched. For his safety, he does not leave the house after 6 p.m. Their landlord has been pressured to evict them, but she refuses, having come to faith in Christ through their witness. Local RSS members have slandered Prem publicly and sometimes prevent other Christians from attending worship services. Still, Prem and Amala have come to love the people of the town and choose to stay to bring the gospel to them..
